KWANTLEN STUDENT ASSOCIATION 2006 GENERAL ELECTION

Nomination period:            January 9-13

This package must be submitted no later than 4pm on January 13 to the KSA main office in Surrey. The package must be date and time stamped by Meenu Saran, at the Surrey front desk. It is the responsibility of the candidate to ensure that their nomination package is correctly stamped by the appropriate individual. The candidate shall be contacted over the proceeding 48 hours if there are any minor mistakes, however, if the Chief Returning officer (CRO) decides that the nomination package was not sufficiently filled out, the package shall be considered null in void.

All-Candidates Meeting:        January 16

Every candidate must attend the meeting. If a candidate is unable to attend the meeting they must meet with the Chief Returning Officer at an alternate time. No candidate may begin campaigning unless they have met with the CRO. Further rules regarding this meeting can be found on the Society website. It is advised that each candidate review the electoral section of the Kwantlen Student Association Regulations prior to handing in the nomination package.

Campaign period:            January 16-19

The official campaign period is the only time at which candidates may campaign after fulfilling the requirements of the above provisions. Campaigning is permitted only after the conclusion of the All-Candidates meeting until the end of close of polls

Voting Days:                    January 18-19

voting Days.*January 16-17

Polls will be open from 10am-4pm on both days. Ballots will be counted on January 20 and unofficial results released late evening on January 20.

The new KSA Board of Directors will assume office on January 23, pending election appeals to the ombudsperson.

It is advised that each candidate review the electoral section of the Kwantlen Student Association Regulations prior to handing in the nomination package. The link can be found by navigating through www.myksa.ca or by copying the direct link:

The REFERENDUM question has not been tallied at this point, it will be counted Saturday January 21, 2006 in room G2070 starting at 10AM. Scrutineers are welcome to attend. Results become official once the Chief Returning Officer has verified the vote totals to the voters list at each campus, among other things. Official results are expected by Tuesday January 24 at 9PM. Any appeals to the ombudsperson must be submitted within 48 hours of the release of these results (it is now 8PM on January 20). Please refer to the KSA Regulations for details regarding appeals.

Thank you,
Amar Randhawa
Chief Returning Officer
